EVOLVEO StrongPhone X1

EVOLVEO StrongPhone X1 is suitable for everyone who expects their mobile phone to withstand more than regular mobile phones currently on market. No matter where you use it-on the countryside, during sport activities, on construction site, in the workshop or in the mountains, it will never let you down!

Extremely strong rubber coated body make this device a reliable partner for everyday intensive use. It also allows you to have 2 active SIM cards in your phone, features 2mpx camera, flashlight and a high capacity battery, which ensures enough energy for long phone duration on single charge.

Waterproofness is certified according to IP67 norm, resistant against dust and immersion in water for 30 minutes at a depth of one meter.
